VISALIA, Mar. 24 — The race for the 35th Assembly district seat began to shape up this week, as two Republicans moved in against the already announced three Democrats.

Donner Power, a former assemblyman, Lindsay farmer, and executive secretary of the Tulare County Taxpayers' association, announced yesterday that he will file for the post.

On Tuesday, Ralph Piegras, Visalia farmer, took out nomination papers to put two candidates on the Republican party ballot. It is possible that a third Republican candidate may also file.

SIX GIRLS COMPETE FOR PORTERVILLE ROUNDUP QUEEN; DECISION MAY 1

PORTERVILLE, Mar. 24 — Four communities — Strathmore, Delano, Poplar and Porterville — are represented in the contest for queen of the Porterville Roundup, May 7 and 8, with six girls competing.

Final selection of the queen, and her two attendants, will be made on May 1, with judging based on three equal categories: Horsemanship, scholarship, and sale of special Roundup tickets by the contestants and members of their sponsoring organizations.

All candidates are seniors in the high schools of their respective communities.

Donna Zollinger, of Delano, is being sponsored by the Delano Saddle club. Miss Zollinger was born in Delano, her principal hobby is horses and riding, she plans to train as a beauty operator when she graduates from high school.

Janice Webb, from Strathmore, is active in school affairs, is art editor for the Strathmore high school annual and school paper, she is an excellent rider, having been a member of Porterville's Canterbelles for three seasons. Miss Webb plans to attend Pepperdine after high school graduation. Her sponsor has not as yet been announced.

JOAQUIN SANCHEZ, nationally famous rodeo clown and bull fighter, with his uncooperative friend, Mortimer, will be featured in the arena at the annual Springville rodeo, to be held at the Gill arena, April 9 and 10. While Sanchez will create plenty of laughs with his clown antics, his role becomes extremely important during the Brahma bull riding, for it is up to him to keep the bulls away from thrown riders — and there will be plenty of them scattered around during this event.

5 YEARS AND 40 POOLS LATER . . . . .

IT SEEMS A LITTLE SILLY TO BE CALLED AN "OLDTIMER" WHEN YOU HAVE ONLY BEEN IN BUSINESS A SHORT FIVE YEARS AND ONLY BUILT TWO-SCORE SWIMMING POOLS. BUT, IN THIS NEWEST OF NEW BUSINESSES, YOU'RE PRACTICALLY A PIONEER IF YOU HAVE BEEN AT IT ANY LONGER.

OF COURSE, WE'VE BEEN IN THE CONSTRUCTION BUSINESS MUCH, MUCH, LONGER — BUILDING HOMES AND COMMERCIAL STRUCTURES. SO, WE DIDN'T EXACTLY START FROM SCRATCH. IN FACT, HAD WE NOT ALREADY HAD THE ENGINEERING "KNOW-HOW", WE DOUBT WHETHER WE WOULD HAVE TACKLED SO IMPORTANT A JOB AS THE DESIGNING AND CONSTRUCTION OF HOME SWIM-POOLS.

AND, THIS "KNOW-HOW" IS YOUR BEST ASSURANCE THAT THE POOL WE BUILD FOR YOU, WILL BE STRUCTURALLY STRONG, ATTRACTIVELY PLANNED AND REASONABLY PRICED.

AT ANY RATE, WE WANT YOU TO "MEET" SOME OF THE PEOPLE WHO ARE ALREADY ENJOYING "STERLING CONLEY" BUILT POOLS. WE WILL INTRODUCE YOU TO THEM IN SUCCEEDING ADVERTISEMENTS. WE WILL SHOW YOU THEIR POOLS AND POOLSCAPES AND LET THEM TELL YOU IN THEIR OWN WORDS WHAT A POOL HAS MEANT TO THEM, THEIR FAMILIES AND FRIENDS.

IN THE MEANTIME, AND INASMUCH AS THE SWIMMING SEASON IS CLOSE AT HAND, WHY NOT LET US FIGURE A POOL FOR YOU. WE THINK YOU'LL FIND THAT THEY COST MUCH LESS THAN YOU EXPECT AND CAN READILY BE FIT INTO YOUR PRESENT BUDGET THROUGH OUR CONVENIENT PURCHASING PLAN.

We Only Heard

By BILL RODGERS

IT IS always with mixed emotions that we view plans for developments that will bring more people into our mountain areas—plans for additional roads that will open areas that are now reached only on foot or by horse; plans for camping facilities that will draw more tourists; plans for mountain subdivisions; plans for improvement of existing roads.

FOR, WE like the mountains as they are, but — and this is a very big but — there is no denying the recreation demands for California's growing and prosperous population; people are coming into our mountains by car and trailer now in greater numbers than can be accommodated; people are seeking accessible sites for summer homes; mountain roads draw traffic as soon as they are opened.

SO IT seems that since there is no cutting down on recreation demand, the best approach is to provide for these persons who seek mountain recreation — provide for them and profit from them.

THAT IS why we think the Springville chamber of commerce is on the right track in arranging last week's meeting of chamber representatives, county and city officials, forest service personnel and commercial business operators from the general Tulare county area to plan for future recreational development in the Sierra of Southern Tulare county.

AT THE present time, a permanent organization is contemplated, composed of representatives of chambers of commerce and governmental agencies to plan for and seek developments that will provide outdoor facilities for benefit of tourists — campers, hunters, fishermen, winter sports fans.

PRESENT STATUS of the organization is that after the exploratory meeting at Springville, representatives of various county chambers are to present the idea to their respective groups; if the idea is accepted, then a permanent, promotional group will be established.

MAN BEHIND the idea is Wes Kutzner, president of the Springville chamber of commerce, who is using the simple theory that in numbers there is strength, that a number of individuals, representing several groups, can, working as a coordinated unit, get a lot more done than the separate groups can, working alone.

WES HAS started the show on the road; chambers of commerce of the county should help keep it moving.

OLD ABNER DOUBLEDAY REALLY STARTED SOMETHING

Baseball, the national pastime and the game that identifies our nation, always sets the oldtimers to remembering and comparing and wondering.

Since we joined the ranks of the oldtimers last week when we turned 24 we thought we were entitled to remember, compare and wonder.

It seems that baseball evolved way back in 1836 when a former army officer, Abner Doubleday, decided that a rather rowdy game called "town ball" needed a little organization. So he set to work, military fashion, and out of his efforts the present game baseball came. We are reasonably sure that old Abner back there in Cooperstown, N. Y. didn't know what a force he was unleashing on the world. The first professional baseball team was the Cincinnati Red Stockings, who were formed in 1869 and in 1871 the National association, the first professional baseball league, was formed with nine teams competing for the title.

So we have the game of baseball. And this game has a great effect on our society. Probably the time of year when the United States is most vulnerable to attack is during world series time. An enemy could occupy the entire nation and the populace would scarcely glance away from their television sets.

Take a young man of sixth grade age and ask him who Jonas Salk, of polio vaccine fame is. The boy would probably scratch his head a minute, look out the window, and say, "Lemme see, he's that rookie centerfielder who broke in with the Giants last year. Switch hitter, I think." You had him puzzled for a minute with that one, rookies are always hard to remember. Now you ask him who Roger Hornsby is and he instantly replies, "Hornsby, yeah, he won seven National League batting championships and hit .424 one year, which is still the record."

Baseball season always starts us remembering when we used to try our hand at the game. We remember the first, and only, baseball glove we ever owned. We had just reached the tender age of 13, and considered ourself major league material. But we didn't have a baseball glove. Well, somehow we managed to salvage a dollar from our already battered and almost laughably inadequate family budget. It happened that the boy down the street had a glove of considerable age that he would be willing to part with, for the sum of one dollar, and we were soon the owner of the well-broken-in glove. We immediately refashioned the glove to fit our own demanding needs, and set about winning fame and fortune as a baseball player.

Needless to say, we didn't make it. In fact, our baseball career ended after our freshman year in high school. We played first base on the Frosh team and had a rather stormy season under our coach. Somehow we couldn't agree on many aspects of the game. A few of the high points of the season were when we were booted off the team and taken back on again in the short space of one afternoon. It was when we went to Orosi for a game. On arriving there the coach, (now retired) asked if we would mind retrieving the bats after our hard hitting young men had used them. The

GOOD SHEPHERD HOME AUXILIARY BOARD MAKES PLANS FOR 1960 YEAR AT MEETING OF WESTERN AREA WOMEN

TERRA BELLA, March 24 — Gathering in Good Shepherd Lutheran Home of the West from the entire western United States, the governing board of Good Shepherd Home auxiliary last week held a three day meeting, making plans for the year for the 6,000-member organization of women supporting the Home.

The sessions were conducted by Mrs. E. C. Lange of El Monte, Calif., auxiliary president. Opening services were led by the Rev. George Steinbeck in Zion Lutheran church of Terra Bella. Pastor Steinbeck serves as home chaplain.

The women adopted a $35,000 budget for 1960, learned they had exceeded their 1959 goal by $10,000. Their pledge to the home was $14,050, which provided much needed equipment for the 72-resident home and school.

Most of the surplus amount is to be applied toward a printing department for the home, the women decided.

Mr. and Mrs. George Achterberg of Porterville were hosts with local auxiliary members Friday evening for a delightful buffet supper entertaining the visiting women. Mrs. Rudolph Meier, also of Porterville, heads the local circle of auxiliary women and assisted the hosts in planning the affair.

Attending the annual meeting from California were: Mrs. E. C. Lange, El Monte; Mrs. R. J. Prowse, Mrs. Louise Moore, Berkeley; Mrs. John Potratz, Inglewood; Mrs. A. W. Heinze, Rialto; thought of being team bat boy didn't set too well with us, so we told the coach about it, and we parted company. But the need arose shortly thereafter for a pinch hitter and we were reinstated. And a loss to the baseball world was averted. Several weeks later, during practice, we hit a young man in the jaw with a thrown baseball and again found ourself among the unathletic student body.

We now play our baseball from the front of the television set, listening to Dizzy Dean or Leo Durocher make bad calls. Couldn't ever agree with coaches anyway.

Mrs. F. H. Mackensen, Fallbrook; Mrs. James Kerrigan, Mill Valley; Mrs. H. H. Beckler, Mrs. Henry Bamesberger, Mrs. Arnold Otte, Mrs. O. C. Ulrich, Mrs. Paul Yorde, Anaheim.

Out of state women attending were: Mrs. Elmer Friedrichs and Mrs. Clarence Stay, Boulder City, Nev.; Mrs. Albert E. Fritz, Henderson, Nev.; Mrs. James Brown, Pittman, Nev.; Mrs. Royal Corley, Thermopolis, Wyo.; Mrs. Leland Hebblethwaite, Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. Robert Lutz, Everett, Wash.; Mrs. I. Dammel, Great Falls, Mont.; Mrs. Eugene Chenoweth, Milliken, Colo.; Mrs. W. W. Buttenhoff, Portland, Ore.; Mrs. W. H. Fischer, Salem, Ore.

YOUR LEGISLATOR AT WORK!

Senator
J. Howard Williams
32nd District
California State Legislature

Despite the Sputnik-created concern over the quality of our public system of higher education, it is still difficult for us in the Legislature to work out acceptable changes in the machinery. Committee hearings in our current special session on proposed constitutional amendments relating to collegiate institutions have again amply proved that the job is not easy.

As I have written before in this column, a liaison group from the University, the state colleges and junior colleges spent months developing a master plan for the future of our higher education. Because one of the proposed changes would require a constitutional amendment, two different measures were drafted for the purpose which varied mostly in length and detail as originally introduced.

Each would define public higher education as consisting of three segments, the junior colleges, the state colleges, and the University of California. The functions of each of the three would be spelled out. A new board, the Trustees of the State College System, would be created to administer such institutions, and the terms of its members fixed at 16 years, the same as University regents. A new coordinating council for higher education, composed of representatives of private as well as public colleges, would be established as an advisory group.

But when these proposed constitutional amendments first came up for committee hearing, it quickly became apparent that there was practically no unanimity of opinion on the recommendations of the liaison group, and especially as to which of them, if any, should be written into the Constitution by the voters next November. Not even spokesmen for the various schools could agree on answers.

The dispute grew so tense that one supporter of the master plan recommendations said that the committee would soon be laboring over a corpse. Whether he meant the amendment or public higher education was not made clear.

In a swift, and to some observers unexpected move, a series of amendments to both measures were offered which would have the effect of removing from them practically everything except the provisions creating the state college trustees, and the length of their terms of office. In explaining these amendments, it was said they were offered so as to retain for the Legislature its authority to control the functions of state colleges as much as possible.

Opponents of these proposed changes in the constitutional amendments argued that they are completely incompatible with the master plan. It was also asserted that their adoption would create further political pressure in the field of higher education and would increase the competition between the state colleges and the University which the master plan is supposed to wipe out.

Action on these proposals was deferred until a second meeting of the committee. At that time the group was told by our legislative counsel that the only element which would legally require a constitutional amendment was fixing the terms of the trustees at more than four years. As a result

CHAPEL CHIMES

By Rev. N. J.
Thompson

The manager of the department store read a letter of complaint from an irate customer. The customer's order had been "fouled up." The customer was blaming the company, of course. Yet the company had a smooth, fool-proof routine for processing orders, so simple that even a child could follow through. Some clerk had goofed — and was in serious trouble. We have become a nation of religious goofs. God has laid down certain rules to govern our lives. When we fail to conduct our commercial, social, and family relationships according to the rules, we are in trouble.

What rules has God laid down? What orders has He given to the human race? Put these questions to a hundred people, and you will likely get a hundred different answers.

One classical rule is known as the Golden Rule. Propounded by Jesus Christ in His famous sermon on the mount, it is an order. If followed in our daily dealings with our fellows, it would outlaw wars and usher in an era of heavenly love, courtesy, and kindness. What says the Golden Rule? "As ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise" (Luke 6:31).

Another important rule of conduct is found in Mark, chapter 12. A lawyer asked Jesus which is the greatest commandment of them all. Jesus replied, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind: this is the first commandment. And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. There is none commandment greater than these."

Jesus said, "Follow Me." How good is your followership? Can you obey orders?

WHAT DOCTORS SAY ABOUT

Catching Trench Mouth

Q. Is it possible to get trench mouth from glasses that have been washed and dried in the ordinary way?

A. Trench mouth is usually passed along by direct contact such as kissing. In the home, washing glasses in clean water and drying with a clean cloth would probably remove most harmful germs. It is not enough to simply swish a glass in a sink containing water that has been used to "wash" other dishes and "drying" the glass with a much used cloth. A glass washed in this way could be loaded with germs. Positive proof that such conditions as colds, influenza, and trench mouth can be passed along in this way is difficult to obtain but it would seem possible. One good practice is to give all washed dishes and silverware a final rinse with boiling water.

The doctor knows best—and that is why so many doctors recommend our prescription service.

News Of The SPRINGVILLE COMMUNITY

By WINNIE GAGE

The Springville Hobby Club enjoyed a progressive luncheon Friday, March 18, starting with salad at the home of Mrs. Ann Baird and ending, Mrs. Nell Southworth, then to the home of Mrs. Bessie Ruby for a fried chicken dinner, and to Mrs. Ethel Rush's home for ice cream, cake and coffee and the meeting.

A game "Paddy's Pig" was played with Mrs. Lora Gage winning a prize. Attending were the ones already mentioned and Mary Lunsford, Emma McCutcheon, Gwen Myrick of Porterville, Lucile Higgins, Winnie Gage and Jeannette Higgins.

April meeting will be Hat Day in the home of Mrs. Mary Lunsford in Porterville.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Woodruff of South Gate were weekend guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Skiles.

On Saturday night Mrs. Woodruff was honored with a stork shower in the home of Mrs. J. A. Stillian with Mrs. Lillian Avery and Mrs. Gladys Duncan as co-hostesses.

She received many lovely and useful gifts. Games were played with Eleanor Borrer, Leona Urmy and Freda Shettler winning prizes.

Unique refreshments of whipped cream, apricots, sliced bananas and loaf cake resembling eggs, bacon and toast, were served to the 30 guests present. Twenty friends sent gifts, but couldn't attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rush and children, Beverly and Randy, of Garden Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lacky and children, Tommy and Cindy of Button Willow; Mr. and Mrs. Danny Craig and children of Button Willow, were weekend guests of Mrs. Ethel Rush.

The Tulare County Historical Society met Sunday afternoon,

March 20, 1960, in the Memorial building in Springville with more than 100 in attendance.

Donald Witt, president, introduced Wes Kutzner, president of Springville Chamber of Commerce, Clyde Simpson and Mrs. Winnie Gage as co-chairmen of the program.

Topics of discussion were earlier families, mills, post offices, schools and cemeteries. Miss Virginia Radeleff gave a report on Telephone line started in 1895 by Dr. Gistrap, up to dial in 1958. The old telephone switchboard used by Springville operators, Mr. and Mrs. George Haigh and Mr. and Mrs. Radeleff for 23 years was then presented to Springville Chamber of Commerce President Wes Kutzner by Bob Board, manager of telephone service who in turn presented it to Don Witt, president of Tulare County Historical Society, who then presented it to Merle Harp, Tulare County Superintendent of Parks, and he presented it to Walter Sunkel who will place it in the museum in Mooney Grove, which is located between Tulare and Visalia.

Many pictures of early days were on display and enjoyed by the viewers.

The Springville 4-H Club started their March meeting on projects reports. Members who reported were: Rodney Avery, Barbara and Margaret Brand, Dennis, Duane and Judy Bayless, John, Marian, and Sharlene Brockman, Cynthia, Jane and Mary Choate, George Costa, Leonard and Reggie Faryo, Ines and Melody Crabtree, Kenny Hanggi, Duane and Linda Lantsberger, Ronnie and Steven Moore, Maureen and Mike McDonald, Patty Murphy, Delores Witt, Carole Masonhiemer, Brent Gill, Carolyn Cranston and Andrew Moore.

Springville Club invited the Success Club to the joint 4-H meeting Sunday, March 12, 1960.

Marian Brockman and Melody Crabtree were the committee that fixed the display window at the Springville Hardware for 4-H week.

Demonstrations were given by Ronnie Moore and Duane Lantsberger, Maureen McDonald, Mary Choate, Patty Murphy and Ines Crabtree.

Talent acts were by Carolyn Cranston, Maureen McDonald, Mary Choate, Margaret Brand, Dick Gould, George Costa Jr., Duane Lantsberger, and Jane Choate. Refreshments were served by Kenny Hanggi.

More than 30 relatives of Mr.

and Mrs. Lyman Gage helped them celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary Sunday, which was also Mrs. Gage's birthday. The group included four generations of the Gage family and Mr. Gage's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Roe White of Fullerton, California.

The Gages were presented with many cards and gifts, and a beautiful decorated cake.

AT LAST! Science Now Gives You Clear Hearing Again . . . WITH NOTHING IN EITHER EAR!

The new electronic "break-through" has aroused enthusiasm among business men who don't want to wear a hearing aid, but want to hear clearly in conferences, meetings, at the theatre, etc.

It's no longer necessary to advertise your deafness by cupping a hand behind your ear, asking people to repeat, or wearing an old-fashioned "hearing aid." It's no longer necessary to miss the theatre because you can't sit in the first few rows.

The exclusive, patented new Listener will let you hear clearly without having a seat in the front row. It's always ready. Put it on or take it off as easily as a pair of glasses. No wires, cords, tubes, or ear plugs — works on contact with the head. Your appearance is completely natural.

The principle is simple, but never before has it been applied with such amazing effectiveness. A remarkable new "Tympno Technique" by-passes the defective outer and middle ear, conducting sounds directly through the mastoid process to the healthy, active inner hearing mechanism.

Find out — without any cost or obligation — how this scientific electronic development will help you hear again clearly and distinctly WITH ABSOLUTELY NOTHING IN EITHER EAR. Find out how it can help you enjoy normal business, social and religious life.

Just send name and address for FREE booklet on new patented "Tympno Technique." Write Mariposa Laboratories, 2036 Mariposa Street, Ossining, N. Y. (Adv.)

CITRUS TREES

Here's why: Phosphorus is vital to both the growth and reproduction of every citrus tree. During its reproductive process, any citrus tree can be very effectively put to use more phosphorus than its root system can gather . . . even in phosphorus rich soil.

PX-1 SPECIAL Zn is a scientifically developed chemical solution, designed to supply the "extra" phosphorus needed at the most vital stage of the plant's development. It is applied to the leaves as a spray, hence its designation as a "foliar nutrient." PX-1 SPECIAL Zn is actually at work within the plant in less than one hour after application!

From

Daybell
Nursery

By John

This week marks the beginning of spring. Further, it is clean up, paint up, and plant week in Porterville. Of course we're in favor of both, but it is mighty hard when you are suffering from spring fever to have to watch the wife out cleaning up and planting. Makes you feel like you should get up and put gas in the mower for her or something.

One friend of ours complained that he hated to see spring come because it kept him busy all Sunday opening and closing the gate so his wife could get through with the wheelbarrow. This of course is just one of the problems the garden minded husband has this time of year.

In line with our efforts to make gardening easier we have scattered a few chairs around the nursery so you can be comfortable while the wife is out front loading plants in the car. We find the chairs soon pay for themselves on this basis. However we shudder to think about what happens when you get home and find out how much we stuffed in your trunk. Pretty horrible thought.

A typical trunk-load this time of year includes a few Flowering Shrubs in full bloom, some Lawn Food, large economy size Aphis and Mildew Spray, new Sprayer, some Weed Oil, small size Dandelion Spray, Acid Food for camellias, Peat Moss for the camellias, and some Camellias.

Things saved for next pay day include new Garden Hose, new Sprinkler, and some Petunias for the bed you've elected to get ready. Maybe you should offer to take her for a drive or even go to church until spring blows over.

WILLIAMS IS STUDYING STREAM PROBLEMS

SACRAMENTO, Mar. 24—Senator J. Howard Williams (R) Thirty-second district, Tulare county, chairman of the Senate Fact Finding committee on National Resources, stated today that the committee will hold public hearings in Red Bluff and Stockton on April 11 and April 13, respectively, to receive testimony relative to the alleged damage of salmon and steelhead spawning grounds resulting from the removal of aggregate from stream beds, as well as suggestions for alleviating this condition.

Senator Williams said that Senate Bill 362 was introduced at the 1959 Regular Session of the Legislature to cope with this problem and that the bill was subsequently referred to the Senate Natural Resources committee for study so that all of its ramifications could be reviewed. He said that the committee's objective is to devise a workable procedure reasonably fair to the various interests involved.

Home Owners Urged To Brighten Up Property For Clean-Up Week

PORTERVILLE, Mar. 24 — As a concluding feature of paint-up, Clean-up and Plant week in Porterville, members of the Porterville Garden club, and the Porterville chamber of commerce, urge all city property owners to sharpen up their property in any way possible during the next few days.

Business men got the week off to a flying start, Monday, when they went to work on Main street sidewalks at 8 o'clock in the morning. There has been general activity among property owners during the week, and the City of Porterville has started to clean-up and improve the recently-purchased "Rose Silva" property just south of the Municipal ball park.

A plant exchange that was conducted by the Porterville Garden club at city hall park Saturday brought good response, with visitors from Tulare, Lindsay, Strathmore and Ducor joining with Porterville women in the exchange of plants.

The Porterville Zonta club announced a new project in connection with the week — the placing of benches in certain areas of Main street for the use of shoppers.

Local nurseries have "specials" underway now in various types of trees, and several Porterville stores are running paint specials in connection with Clean-up week.

Western Parade

known on the big-time rodeo circuit, Sanchez will be making a sort of homecoming appearance at Springville, since this was one of the first shows at which he appeared when he was getting his start.

Stock for the Springville rodeo will be furnished by the Flying U Rodeo company, with brones and bulls wild eyed and bushy tailed in their first appearance of the 1960 rodeo season.

Other arena features will include Beeswax, the educated mule, and Moore, and, on Saturday, Porterville's Canterbelles will present their precision mounted drill.

Official rodeo office will open on April 6 at 9 a.m., to receive cowboy entries; deadline for entering all events is April 8, at 6 p.m.

"Local" cowboys, residing in the Porterville Union High School district, are eligible to compete against the RCA professional cowboys, who will be riding and roping for world championship points.

Switchboard

of the switchboard for the Springville Chamber of Commerce, first made formal presentation to Wes Kutzner, president of the Springville chamber, who in turn presented it to Donald Witt, president of the Tulare County Historical society.

Virginia Radeleff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Radeleff — last Pacific Telephone agent in Springville — related the history and growth of telephone service in Springville. She said, that in 1895, Dr. Gilstrap a dentist, built the first telephone line that extended between Springville and Porterville. Later it was extended to the Coburn lumber mill on Bear creek and to Visalia and Bakersfield and was called the Mt. Whitney Telephone Co.

The first switchboard in Springville, she related, was a box affair that was fastened to the wall of the dining room of the old Springville hotel from 1898 to 1900. Aggie Blake was its attendant. From 1900 to 1910 the switchboard was located in George Dillon's store.

In 1911, Miss Radeleff said, the Sunset Telephone company established the first telephone company exchange. In 1921 the magneto switchboard being donated to the Historical society was installed, and Mrs. Eleanor Haigh was the telephone company's agent. Mrs. Haigh operated the switchboard until 1927, when it was moved to Mrs. Juanita Radeleff's home.

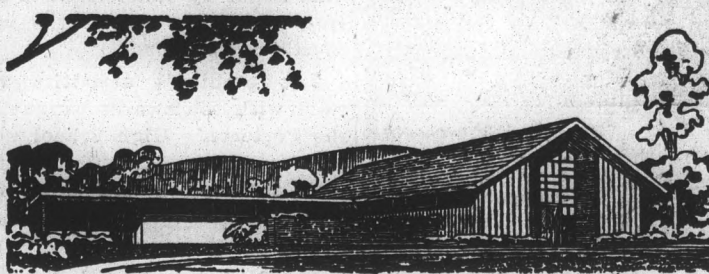

It remained under Mrs. Radeleff's operation until the exchange was cut to dial operation in 1956. Most of the people in Springville remember the personalized service provided by the switchboard during this era, she said.

The switchboard was taken to Mooney grove by Tulare County Parks superintendent, Merle F.

Harp, where it will be on display in the Tulare County museum.

With the general Historical Society meeting arranged by Clyde Simpson and Winnie Gage, old days in the mountain area around Springville were recalled, and record taken on names of old families, dates of mill and logging operations in the area and general Springville history.
